

17th APPES Fellows Meeting Malaysia, 7 – 9 December 2015

APPES is pleased to announce the 17th APPES Fellows' Meeting, an interactive workshop for trainees in pediatric endocrinology from the Asia-Pacific Region. It is a wonderful opportunity for intensive education and interaction with colleagues and faculty from countries within the region.

Course objectives:

- To provide up to date postgraduate education for medical trainees in pediatric endocrinology from the Asia Pacific Region, covering major areas of pediatric endocrinology and diabetes. The course is designed for fellows who are in the later years of pediatric endocrine training (but not qualified endocrinologists). Applicants should have a reasonable amount of clinical experience.
- To enhance learning using a variety of education formats including case presentations, evidence-based learning, small group discussion, problem-based tutorials and an endocrine quiz.
- To promote understanding about different management practices across the region.

Location and Dates:

The 3 day course will be held from Monday 7 – Wednesday 9 December in Putrajaya, Malaysia. This immediately precedes the AFES Meeting being held in Kuala Lumpur.

Faculty:

The experienced teaching faculty includes: A/Prof Maria Craig (Sydney, Australia), Dr Peter Simm (Melbourne, Australia), A/Prof Paul Hofman (Auckland, New Zealand) and Dr Craig Munns (Sydney, Australia). Other faculty will be confirmed by the end of March 2015.

Selection of fellows:

Applications open at the end of March 2015 and close on 8 July 2015.

Application forms will be available on the APPES website, www.appes.org.

Additional information required at the time of application includes (i) Participation at previous APPES fellows' meetings, (ii) Curriculum Vitae (maximum 2 pages) and (iii) Letter of endorsement/reference (word document is sufficient), which should be e-mailed separately from the head of your department. Fellows do not need to be an APPES member to apply, but must be members of APPES to attend.

How to apply:

Advice of how to apply will be updated when applications open in March.
